Re: Due Diligence Inquiries on Summit Filing Solutions, Inc. ("Summit")

Dear Jim:

I write on behalf of the Summit shareholders to respond briefly to your recent letter asking for further information on certain due diligence matters. On the issue of distributions, I can assure you that any excess amounts paid to a shareholder during a distribution event were either repayments of loans from that shareholder to Summit Filing Solutions or variances reflecting simple agreements between shareholders relative to amounts due in consideration for the transfer of shares between them.

As to shareholder eligibility, I can also assure you that we have had no shareholders that were non residents of the U.S., despite any temporary mailing addresses which may appear in the due diligence files.

I hope this responds to your inquiries. Please let me know if you would like the shareholders to provide formal representations or warranties relative to the foregoing matters.

Best wishes for Thanksgiving.

Sincerely,

/s/ Laura Kensington
